

A message from Margie

I actually don't have the words to do justice to my feelings about tonight. The outpouring of generosity, encouragement and support for my family and myself has been overwhelming. Thank you, from the very bottom of my heart, to all of you. Every person here tonight symbolizes a wish for my health, and for that, I am incredibly grateful. xx